THE KEYSTONE OF THE ARCH.

The county ring have given up all hopes of electing their legislative ticket, and are now trading everything in sight to keep District Attorney Summerfield in his office for two years more.

He is the keystone of the arch of corruption which upholds the ring. Perfectly subservient to their wishes, he can at all times be depended on to do their bidding. County officers can openly violate the law and feel assured that no legal action will be taken as long as Mr. Summerfield is holding the office of District Attorney.

In other words he draws a salary from the taxpayers of Ormsby county to act as the retainer of the county ring.

When he is defeated the keystone of the arch falls and the whole structure goes to pieces.

This is why the Republican bosses have abandoned the fight on other portions of the ticket and concentrated their energies to retain him in office.

As long as they can control the courts they are willing to let the taxpayers have the balance of the piece.

Let every voter and taxpayer of Ormsby who wants to see an honest administration of justice in Ormsby, put in a vote for Mr. McGowan, the Silver party candidate for District Attorney, that the law in Ormsby may no longer be regarded as a by word and laughing stock.

Jones' Body Blow for Silver.

The interview of Senator Jones in the Denver News has fallen like a bombshell upon the old straight-out crowd. For weeks they have been telling the people that Senator Jones would take no part in the "Weaver ghost dance" on the grounds that he was too able and sensible a man to indulge in such vagaries.

Many of Jones' old followers in this State who regard his judgment as absolute in political matters, have held back from the Weaver movement here because of these reports.

The silver managers have never given themselves the slightest concern about Jones during this campaign, and as they knew perfectly well what his views were, and that he would voice his well known sentiments for silver at the time when it would be the most effective.

He has planted his blow on the ribs of the gold bugs and they are now staggering under it. The claim that the interview is bogus is the last despairing cry of the traitors to Nevada on the eve of crushing defeat.

A few days ago there was some doubt about the county Silver men electing their whole ticket. New votes have been falling in line every day. Some may be men, who came in to be on the winning side, but their votes count all the same, and the Silver party will carry the county by a decided majority.

Mr. Summerfield is again gravely assuring the church vote that if elected he will close all the Chinese tan games. Seems as if we had heard of that promise before.

The meeting at Wadsworth night before last was the largest political gathering ever held at Wadsworth. Newlands made a convincing speech and captured the town. Wadsworth will give him a large majority.

Any voter who expects to see the ballots voted on election day the same size as the sample ballots, will be very much mistaken.

The train that took the Republicans of Carson to Dayton on Thursday evening were met at Dayton with cheers for Weaver and Field.

PUBLIC MEETING.

There will be public speaking at the Opera House on Monday evening. Hon H Bergstein and Hon T V Julian of Reno will address the meeting and be followed by local speakers.
